SELLING LIQUORS WITHOUT LICENSE .-Upon complaints filed by the District At- the Coroner's jury summoned to inquire torney, assisted by W. W. Bishop, war. into the cause of the death of Wright and torney, assisted by W. W. Bishop, war. rants were issued day before yesterday for the arrest of nineteen keepers of houses of ill-fame for selling liquors without license. The women based their grievance, in answering, mainly on the fact that they were ignorant of the existence of a law requiring them to pay license, and further, that they had never been asked to pay such tax by the County Collector, and that the first intimation they had of such legal requirement was when the warrants were served. Some of these cases may be heard to-day.

PUBLIC APPROVAL. - Our suggestion that Governor Bradley should offer a liberal reward for the arrest of the murderers of Wright and Sanbourne is hearti-ly approved by citizens generally. The offer of the reward should extend to accessories as well as principals. The authors of the bloody deed must be of the most desperate character, and detec-tives ought to be stimulated to action by the hope of liberal compensation.

He has no relations in America, according to his own statement just betore death, and was an unmarried man. He was admitted into the Hospital on the 17th of last April, suffering at the time from inflammation of the lungs. A postmortem examination will be made to-day.

GRIFFITH, whom we reported, from what we considered good authority, to have been arrested on suspicion of having been connected with the murder of Wright and Saubourne, called at our editorial room yesterday to inform us that we were altogether mistaken—that he was engaged in assisting one of the offi-cers in ferreting out the perpetrators. Many of our citizens suggested particularization. One gentleman had a the propriety of giving John Maguire particularization. One gentleman had a package of "Arizona precious stones" taken from his valise, but the thief will be sharper than the owner if he manages to realize anything from them. A hundred lashes, well laid on, would meet the case of small thieves, and for those who operate on a more extensive scale more severate forms of punishment could be prescribed.
